The novels are splendid ones, and they are published complete in neat pamphlet form. Note the sames of the authors—they are the most celebrated writers, both of America and Europe. Note also the long and attractive list from which you are privileged to select. No matter which of the novels you choose, you will be perfectly delighted with them. Most of the novels in this list sell for 25 cents each in the Seaside and other libraries. You can get twenty-five of them—any twenty-five you may choose—free, for getting us only one yearly subscriber.

Can you doubt that this is a wonderful opportunity—such a one as you never had before?

Now let every reader of this paper consider this offer as addressed to himself or herself individually. Make up your mind that you will have twenty-five of these charming complete novels.

And how easily you can do it! What is it to get one yearly subscriber to this paper? There is not and now easily you can do it. What is it to get one yearly subscriber to this paper? There is not one single one of our present subscribers and readers but can do it, if they will try. Remember, you are not asked to get up a club or to do any canvassing, but merely to use your influence to induce one of your neighbors or friends to take our paper for a year. Anybody can do this. Among your neighbors and friends there is certainly one who will subscribe for our paper at your solicitation. Do not put it off, or stop to think it over, but go right out at once and get your subscriber. You yourself will be surprised to find how easy a thing it is to do, and when you receive your twenty-five complete novels and commence reading them, you will be delighted to think you took advantage of our great and very liberal offer.

We will give fifty of the novels for two yearly subscribers, seventy five for three subscribers, and so on for any number. Get more than one subscriber if you can without too much trouble, but do not fail to get at least one, and secure for yourself twenty five charming complete novels free. You will miss a grand chance—a great opportunity—if you pass this offer by unheeded. Order your novels by the numbers as given. Address all letters:
